The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth,
As it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
The power, and the glory,
For ever and ever.
Amen.

The 'Links' in a chain

When reviewing our processes from the first lockdown the idea came for building better connections with one another in our Church family to support each other. Obviously we do this organically with everyday life but when things like Covid interrupts our lives it reveals the human need we all have, to be in contact with each other.

The idea is to have a 'link' group consisting of 3 to 4 people that are in connection with each other. The purpose of the 'links' has many objectives:

- ∞ to connect and support and be supported by others;
- ∞ to know others better than what we do;
- ∞ to help anyone on their own or new to Church who would benefit from a closer connection to others;
- ∞ to be an opportunity for social events to flourish.

Now depending on the makeup of your 'link' what you want from it will be determined by each group.

Some suggestions are:

- You may just like to touch base with each other on a Sunday morning;
- your link may find a phone call to each other is sufficient;
- you may suggest your link meet at a cafe for a get-together or have a cup of tea at someone's home on a regular basis;
- you may want to take it further by having a meal and/or bible study/home group with your link.

The possibilities are as much or as little as your 'link' decides. Nothing needs to be set in concrete on how you 'link'. Maybe you already have what you would call a 'link' and would like to formalise it, that's fine too. Let me know so that I can do that. If you want to be part of this and you see the advantages and possibilities then let me know so that I can 'link' you up.

I will be handing out a clip board on Sunday and I'm happy to answer any questions you may have.

Hawera A/G is delighted to invite you and to ask you to spread the word about a movie for the whole family. We are screening "Blue Miracle" and would love you to join us. It is an uplifting film based on a true story. It is best suited for children 7 and over and is rated PG, see review below.

Common Sense Media said this about the film...
WHAT PARENTS NEED TO KNOW

Parents need to know that Blue Miracle is an uplifting film based on a true story that has a generally light tone and a happy ending but also some potentially scary scenes and themes. The main character Omar (Jimmy Gonzales) runs an orphanage for parent-less boys, and he continuously models integrity, hard work, resilience, and honesty for them despite his own challenges, including bank debt that could shut the orphanage down. Though the boys are mostly cheerful, they do talk about some traumatic past experiences. They share the scars on their bodies from abuse, like getting cut by metal coat hangers, and they talk about losing parents to bullets, drugs, and prison. One boy's brother was said to have been shot, and we see young men shooting at each other in the background of a street scene. The main character's father drowned when he was little, and he continues to have nightmares involving water and drowning. He also flashes back to his own childhood living on the street. Two boys get in a fight on a boat and fall overboard; one can't swim so an adult has to dive in to save him. Adult men drink beer, tequila, and whiskey, sometimes to excess, and a past involving drug running is discussed. Language is mostly childish taunts like "punk" and "loser," but also includes "hell" and some spoken insults in Spanish that aren't translated in the English subtitles. The film has Christian iconography and messages of faith.
