Today we pray for all Mothers, those living and those who have passed away; for the Mothers who have loved us and for those who fell short of loving us fully; for those who hope to be Mothers some day and for those whose hope to have children has been frustrated; for all Mothers who have lost children; for those who have mothered children in other ways and for those who have been substitute Mothers.

Thank you Lord for Mothers, they truly are a gift from you.

Below is a space for prophetic art, doodling or a word you may get during the service.
